

CHILDREN'S DRESSES.

We are anxious to show you this line of Children's Dresses. The interests of your children's Dress department will best be served by looking over this line. Note the prices given below.

French Dress, made of figured fancy dress goods, yoke ruffle and belt trimmed with fancy soutach braid, in red, blue and brown. Only 75c each.

Child's Dress. This is made of outing flannel and the colors are pink and blue. Price, only 25c each.

French Dress, of a good quality of cashmere, tucked yoke of white Bertha, front and back trimmed with silk braid, in red, blue and brown. Only $2.50.

PERRY &amp; CAMP,

71 and 75 Main Street,

Barre, Vermont.

Going to ## HAVE A WEDDING At Your Home?

Do you want to make your daughter or daughter-in-law happy? If so, just drop into our store today and let us show you what a little money spent here will do towards furnishing the parlor, sitting-room, dining-room, chamber or kitchen complete for a wedding gift—or, if not for a wedding gift, to furnish that spare room. Our great offer of a is now here for your inspection. We do not believe in offering half-way bargains. After thorough investigation you will appreciate this offer.

Nine-Piece Chamber Suit, With Spring and Mattress Complete, for $25

Don't blame other dealers, after you have seen the great value of this Suit, and say how bad you got stuck. We have been trying long and hard to bring this opportunity to the public and it is only by taking advantage of carload quantity discounts, etc., that we are able to do it. Seeing is believing. Remember the price, - - - $25

B. W. Hooker &amp; Co.,

(Telephone Connection)

Park Block, Barre, Vt.

City Undertakers.

No. 1 Apples, Barreled in Orchard.

Well colored, choice, late-keeping stock. It will pay you to wait and see these Apples. We are, as ever, leaders in low prices. Apples will arrive in a few days.

H. L. AVERILL &amp; CO., North Main St., Barre, Vt.

Home-Made Dairy Cheese!

If You Want Good Cheese

Try ours. It is only - - - 16c per pound.
Sage Cheese, - - - 17c per pound.

Yellow Haddock, 10c Per Pound.

Merchant's Economic Grocery

Bulbs! Bulbs!

OUR FALL STOCK OF BULBS HAS ARRIVED.

Chinese Lilies, each, 10c or three for - - - 25c
Easter Lilies, each, 10c or three for - - - 25c
Hyacinths, each, - - - 5c
Narcissus, each, - - - 3c
Jonquils, each, - - - 5c
Tulips, each, - - - 2c
Crocus, each, - - - 1c

All who have had our Bulbs in the past know that the quality is unsurpassed. If you haven't tried them we advise you to do so this Fall.

Boston Bargain Store,

185-187 North Main Street.

C. N. Kenyon &amp; Co.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

Mrs. John Brown went to Rutland today on a visit.

H. D. Camp went to Randolph this morning on business.

Mrs. A. H. Mace went to Burlington this morning to visit friends.

If you are wise you will use Wise King flour, the best for bread.

Miss Maggie Milne returned last night from a several weeks' visit in New York.

Mme. Hard, an expert corsetiere from New York, at Veale & Knight's store this week only.

Regular meeting of Sanctuary Granite City, S. of A., tomorrow evening in F. of A. hall 7 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts went to Sutton this morning to attend the funeral of their daughter.

You take no chance buying a fur coat and scarf of Pitts', for they are "korrest" in style and price.

Call at the refreshment booth at the Congregational fair this evening and get a dish of that delicious ice.

Charles A. Smith dropped a stick of wood on one foot last night and he is today walking on crutches.

Constable James Coutts returned yesterday afternoon from a business trip to Hardwick and South Ryegate.

Miss Helen Sturtevant, who has been visiting at the Seminary, returned to her home in Hartland this morning.

A private dance will be held in Miles' hall Friday evening, November 6. Music will be furnished by Wilder's orchestra.

Don't forget the dance at Uity hall, South Barre, Friday evening, November 6. Gilbertson's orchestra will furnish music.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hart, who have been at Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDonald's for two weeks, returned to Boston today.

L. Rezetti of Montpelier, formerly of this city, has just returned from an extended visit in Washington, D. C., and Milford, N. H.

A meeting of all cribbage players of the Catholic Order of Foresters will be held in the old C. O. F. club rooms, Miles' block, this evening at 7 o'clock.

Seventeen bucks were killed in the town of Woodbury during the open season, and two does, the hindquarters of the latter having been taken and the rest of the bodies left.

Tickets are now on sale at the Red Cross Pharmacy for Honey's Boys who appear at the opera house this evening. Remember the special price for school children is only 25 cents.

The Ida Read W. C. T. U. are invited to meet with Mrs. Bugbee, Orange street, Friday afternoon, November 6, at 2.30. A "social hour" is promised to all who come. See, pro tem.

Officer Kenneth Nicholson went to Portland, Me., this morning to bring back to Barre Albert Seger, the man charged with larceny from a fellow boarder at the Comstock boarding house.

The town clock has got back into the running again after a rest of several days and bids fair to keep up for at least a reasonable length of time. It seems like the return of an old friend.

Walter S. Goss of Chelsea is to begin work next week in the business and reporter departments of the Montpelier Journal. Mr. Goss was formerly collector for the telephone company.

Miss Annie C. Messer, 151 Highland avenue, Barre, has received from the Boston Herald Co. a fine mechanical drawing set as a prize for correct solving of one of the series of Children's Prize Contests now running in the Boston Sunday Herald.

The movement for an exhibition of Vermont granite at the St. Louis exposition, raises the question if we shall also have an exhibit of Northfield black slate also. Certainly the world at large ought to become familiar with the best slate in America next year.—Northfield News.

That the people of Barre took a great interest in the result of the elections yesterday was evidenced by the numerous telephone calls at this office. A party of local followers of the game of politics waited patiently for the returns. The Times bulletin was read with interest.

The business men of Barre are certainly doing a commendable thing—in arranging to have Barre granite exhibited at the St. Louis fair. It is estimated that it will take some $8,000 to make the exhibit. Barre granite to the front—is certainly the business cry of this section.—Waterbury Record.

All those who would like to bowl on either of the two Barre teams in the Vermont bowling league are requested to meet at Alexander's bowling alley, Thursday evening, Nov. 5, at 7 o'clock sharp, as the first league games are to be played Wednesday night, Nov. 11. John T. Averill, secretary.

It seems a little early to think of Christmas, but it will be here before we realize it. How much more we will enjoy it if we know that our gifts are ready to send as the festive day draws near. Try it this year and see. Go to the Japanese Bazaar next week and at the fancy booth you can get the most attractive gifts imaginable.

The Orange County Telephone company has been given permission to enter Montpelier by Upper Main street, College and East State streets. This decision was arrived at after the street committee, Superintendent Roberts and Chief Engineer J. W. Peck, the committee to whom the matter of route had been referred, had gone over the district.

Miss Pansy Lewis was given a pleasant birthday party at her home on Kirk street last evening by Misses Pinkie Lewis and Mamie Reaside and about twenty five of her friends. The evening was enjoyably spent with games and singing and refreshments were served. Walter Greason in behalf of the company presented Miss Lewis a gold bracelet.

Cards have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. B. I. Staples of St. Johnsbury for the marriage of their sister, Agnes Marion Bullard, to William Walter Husband, at St. Johnsbury, on Tuesday evening, November 17, at 8.30 o'clock. Miss Bullard is quite well known in Barre as she has been a visitor here. Mr. Husband is a newspaper man, having been employed as city editor on the Montpelier Journal. He has finished his engagement with the Journal and on December 1 will assume the duties of private secretary to Senator W. P. Dillingham at Washington.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

J. E. Moore went to Burlington this morning.

Regular meeting of the Rebekahs this evening.

H. J. Carr went to Bellows Falls today on business.

A. E. Whitcomb of Washington was in the city today.

N. Ghilarducci left this morning for Boston on a visit.

See the Sonnette and Augustine corsets at Veale & Knight's.

Conductor Stephen Colby has returned to his train after a week's vacation.

E. L. Scott returned last night from a several days' visit at his home in Granville.

The clerks basket ball team will play a practice game with the Company E team tonight.

Did you note that fine-looking suit I purchased at Pitts' store? It was a beauty for the price.

Several young ladies from this city went to Waterbury last night to attend the Catholic fair there.

Miss Edna Giffin of Orford, N. H., is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. C. W. Huntington.

First Constable James Coutts has moved into room 8, Currier block, where taxes, etc., can be paid him.

J. H. LeClaire went to East Montpelier and Plainfield today distributing advertising bills for the Bios store.

The first bowling game of the season will be between the Pastimes of Montpelier and the Enrekas of Barre, in this city Nov. 18.

The Burlington Free Press reports that the 23rd battery foot ball team of Fort Ethan Allen has arranged for a game with Goddard Seminary at Barre Saturday.

Mrs. William McKewin left yesterday afternoon for the Mary Fletcher hospital, Burlington, with her daughter, Christina, who enters for an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Hutchinson, teacher of second grade Ward 5, has resigned her position and accepted a position in a Burlington school as primary teacher at an advanced salary.

The case of State vs. Amos A. Hall, breach of the peace, was started in city court this forenoon, a jury having been drawn. The trial started at one o'clock this afternoon.

Charles H. Webb, of the reportorial force of the Montpelier Daily Journal, is in the near future to be promoted to the position of assistant editor made vacant by the resignation of W. Walter Husband.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Baptist church gave a supper in the church vestry last evening which was well attended. After the supper a "pleasant evening" was given by the Barre class at which W. A. Boyce gave a very interesting address and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Perry and W. D. Kidder sang several selections.

HUMANE AGENT ARRESTED.

Owner of a Broken Down Horse Sues For Damages.

Burlington, Nov. 4.—Humane Agent John Fuller was arrested yesterday morning by Constable L. W. Ravlin of Winoski for taking into custody a horse belonging to Octave Parizo. Mr. Fuller removed Mr. Parizo's horse from Dodd's block early last Saturday to his own barn, where it is said the horse ate as if he had not had nourishment for some time.

Corsets fitted by an expert at Veale & Knight's this week only. See their advertisement.

See the Sonnette and Augustine corsets at Veale & Knight's.

Oysters on the half shell at the Hotel Northern lunch room.

TOO LATE FOR CLASSIFICATION.

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Write or apply to Mrs. W. H. Miles, Graniteville, 1903.

WANTED—At once, a quarry foreman. Must be good, steady man. Apply to Littlejohn & Milne, quarry or shop. 1904.

A Scientific Shave!

When you draw the razor over the face in a certain manner you can get a "close" shave without creating ingrown hairs. We have learned the secret.

SCOFIELD &amp; LAGOR, Barbers.

ELEVEN YEARS

The Genuine bears the trade-mark "Ruberoid" stamped upon it every three feet.

Augusta, Me., April 2, 1903.

The Standard Paint Co., New York:

Dear Sirs—We have a building covered with your Two-Ply Ruberoid Roofing in 1892. Since that time it has never been coated over and today it is comparatively as good condition as ever. In making alterations we have removed part of this roofing, a small section of which we are sending you for inspection, as it shows hardly any deterioration. Yours truly,

AUGUSTA LUMBER CO.,
Smith S. Randall, President.

Ask for Samples and Prices.

WM. H. PITKIN,

Telephone 231-2. Room 3, Miles Building, Barre.

HEADS MOUNTED.

George A. Houston at Copperfield, Vt., is prepared to mount deer heads.

A. P. ABBOTT &amp; CO.

The Apache Indian

Has left in our window everything that he himself possessed—his Tomahawk, Regiments and his whole collection of Beads and Bead-work. As his is the greatest collection of Bead-work on earth, it will attract and interest many that are themselves interested in this new fad—the Apache Indian Bead-work.

We have for this Bead-work a varied assortment of Beads and every attachment that goes with them. We'll sell the Beads at retail in small lots or at wholesale in large lots. You will find us headquarters on this new fad.

Bead Loom.—This cut shows one of the most popular Looms for this Bead-work. Directions for weaving Beads and Patterns for designs at a moderate price at our notion counters. Any information on this work will be cheerfully given. Anything in this display is for sale.

New Belts and Wrist Bags.—Our Belts are new in make as well as design. Our Wrist Bags are strong and desirable. The price, 49c.

New Pillow Tops.—A little different from the old ones. They are beauties.

Mexican Cut Work.—Our new assortment is of the best quality and prices are less than we have ever sold them before. See the assortment while it is fresh and new.

A. P. ABBOTT &amp; CO.

Snappy Fall Suits and Overcoats!

Elegant New Fall Styles Fresh From the World's Most Famous Makers!

There is character and dignity in our new clothing. There is the touch of hand-tailored garments—a made-for-you appearance that stands the scrutiny of the most expert tailor. Men's Suits, single and double-breasted, the best of all the best, $7.50 to $25.00. Men's Overcoats, none smarter or more handsome, $5.00 to $30.00. There are years of clothing experience behind every garment we sell.

FRANK McWHORTER,

One Price Clothier.

Hatter and Men's Outfitter.

E. Bau's Studio

NOW AT THE NEW CURRIER BLOCK

NORTH MAIN ST., BARRE, VT.

FINE PHOTOGRAPHS.

"Just Thirty-Six More"

WILLOW ROCKERS than we have room for, and we will close them out at twenty per cent discount. ALL NEW, BRIGHT GOODS.

See Us for Values in Furniture!

A. W. BADGER &amp; CO., Morse Block, Barre, - - - Vermont.

Undertakers! [23 Eastern Ave., 50 Park St.] Funeral Directors!

House, 150-21.—TELEPHONE—Store, 187-11.

Ambulance Ready for Any Calls at a Moment's Notice.

Where Price and Quality Go Hand in Hand

Demon No Longer

From time immemorial pie has been dubbed "The Demon of the American Pantry." Did you ever stop to think why this is so? It must be because some ingredient in the pie-crust is impure. Did the thought ever strike you that the impure thing might be the Lard used in the pie-crust?

Our Steam Rendered Lard

is prepared upon our premises and is absolutely pure. Used in your pie-crust, your pie will be "demon" no longer.

F. D. LADD,

Meat Market in Connection.

LEADING GROCER.